EMPIRE CITY DISFAVORED

DISAGREEABLE WEATHER AGAIN DETRACTS FROM ENJOYMENT OF THE SPORT.

Spur Runs a Capital Race in Winning the Midsummer Handicap—King Baggot Inflicts a Surprise on His Many Backers.

New York, July 26.—More disagreeable weather was in store for race-goers today and, coupled with the street car tieup and the failure of several well-backed "good things," made it rather an unsatisfactory afternoon all around. The Midsummer Handicap, for three-year-olds at one mile with $1,000 added, served as the afternoon's feature.

The defeat of King Baggot in the first race was a surprise, as the colt was heavily backed at odds-on. Hanobala was returned an easy winner over the Kentucky Stable's Courtship, essaying its first start.

Bob Hensley made good in the second after being backed to the exclusion of the remainder of the field. He won by a big margin, as in his last start.

Spur accounted for the stake race over the three other starters. Vermont set the pace for the first half mile, and then was challenged by Dick Williams. Loftus had been running along within striking distance with Spur and, when Dick Williams went up on the outside, drove Spur through next to the inner rail. The Butler colt responded and was soon in front. After turning for home, Dick Williams made a menacing move and Loftus drew his whip, whereupon Spur came away to win easily with Dick Williams in second place and Celandria third. Spur's effort can be considered a creditable one, as the colt had a hard race behind Roamer in the Yonkers Handicap last Saturday and many good judges today reasoned it had taken something out of him, but his victory showed him to be at his best. The time, 1:42⅘, was good, considering the slowness of the track and the winner's impost of 128 pounds.

Secretary A. McL. Earlocker left for Saratoga today and will open the offices of the Saratoga Racing Association in the Grand Union Hotel Thursday. Charles G. Logan accompanied him and will assume charge of the reading rooms in the Grand Union and place them in order.

J. W. Hedrick claimed Daddy Long Legs out of the first race yesterday for $1,500 and later sold him to Emil Herz at an advance.

H. Fink bid Bob Hensley up from $1,000 to $2,200 after that racer scored in the second race. J. L. Marrone made a bid earlier and Fink's bid of $2,200 failed to get the horse, he being protected by his stable.

J. J. Moran bid Jesse Jr. up after the Hedrick horse had won the third race. There were several bids by other horsemen and Moran then bid $1,200. Hedrick protected the horse.

T. J. Healey, trainer of the R. T. Wilson horses, was a visitor today from Saratoga, where he has been for several days. He reported everything in great shape at the Spa and predicted a big season of racing.

FINE OPENING OF HAMILTON'S MEETING.

Black Broom Wins the Prince Edward Selling Stakes in a Close Finish.

Hamilton, Ont., July 26.—The second meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club was ushered in this afternoon before a large gathering. Despite the heat a big crowd made the trip from Toronto to witness the sport. Buffalo also sent over a large contingent. Racing conditions were all that the most ardent admirer of the sport could wish for.

Edward Trotter furnished the winner of the feature race, the Prince Edward Selling Stakes, a dash of one mile and a sixteenth with $1,500 added, when Back Broom got up in the closing strides to beat Fountain Fay by a neck. Fountain Fay was a forward contender from the start and in the final eighth, when Black Broom got on equal terms with him, tried to savage the latter. It was a great day for the followers of jockey F. Robinson, as that skillful rider won with his first four mounts.

Among the interested spectators was J. O. Keene, who arrived this morning. Mr. Keene motored from Lexington to Hamilton. He will remain for a couple of days and, while here, will arrange to ship four of his horses to Saratoga, among them the two-year-old filly Yermilla. The latter is an eligible for the Spinaway Stakes and she is being sent there to fill that engagement. Mr. Keene may go to Russia at the conclusion of the present season. He has been offered an engagement to train in that country and has it under consideration.

Steeplechase jockey J. Smith was suspended by the stewards for what was termed a listless ride on Jim O.

Jockeys R. Shilling and W. Ward were suspended for two days by the starter for disobedience at the post.

Harry Rites, complained to the stewards that he had engaged jockey Callahan to ride his colt Sea Beach in the fifth race, and that the rider did not put in an appearance to fill his engagement.

Jockey R. McDermott, who has been riding for the James Butler stable on the eastern tracks, was an arrival. McDermott has been released by Mr. Butler and will finish the racing season on the Canadian circuit. This lad is a native of Hamilton, and last year rode for R. L. Bresler.

Acting in accordance with the suggestion made by the members of the Thoroughbred Horse Association, Secretary A. R. Loudon changed the conditions of all selling races and, in the future, the winners of these races are liable to be claimed for the entered price, plus the value of the race to the first horse. This will apply to all selling races, except selling handicaps. It was also recommended that a cheap race be put on every day, in which all horses may be claimed for the entered price only. This was done to insure owners of the poorer grades of horses an opportunity of winning a purse.

W. Perkins, acting for C. T. Worthington, has purchased the contract that A. L. Austin held on jockey A. Mott.

J. F. Richardson was an arrival from Fort Erie with the J. Lumsden horses. He also brought over eight two-year-olds that Howard Oots left at Fort Erie when he shipped his stable to Windsor.

G. H. Keene came over from Fort Erie on Saturday last. Allie Gates and Albert Simons are still at Fort Erie.

James Rowe and Dr. R. W. McCully were at Fort Erie a few days ago looking over the Harry Payne Whitney string.

Progressive made his first appearance in several months when he carried the colors of the Buffalo turfman, Thomas Francis, in the fourth race.

Manokin was saddled by Harry Rites. The latter has the colt in charge during the absence of his owner, H. G. Bedwell, who is racing at Hawthorne.

It was a notable day for the colors of Sir John Hendrie, the esteemed lieutenant-governor of Ontario. Thoughtful and Splutter carrying them to victory.

The final race of the day was followed by a severe shower, which may dull the track a bit for tomorrow's racing.

BRITISH BRCODMARE RESOURCES.

The third supplement to Vol. XXII., of the General Stud Book is to hand. It contains the returns relating to broodmares for the season 1915, and all the usual information in a convenient form for reference. Messrs. Weatherby are the compilers and publishers.

The mares accounted for number about 6,040. This total is 300 higher than that of 1914. As the mares were covered in 1914 we are still dealing with ante-war statistics. The colt foals registered number 1,773 (which compares with 1,720 in 1914) and the filly foals 1,794 (1,663 in 1914). There were 1,470 barren mares (1,412 in 1914), 152 slipped (107 the previous year), and 179 were not covered. Mares put to half-bred sires numbered 55, 300 died, 33 were sent abroad, and 332 were either not reported or had been put out of the stud. These totals make a grand aggregate of 6,088, but inasmuch as twins are counted as two foals and on an average, eight mares in 1,000 produce twins, about 50 must be subtracted from the aggregate to get at the actual number of mares accounted for. Deducting the mares dead, exported, unrecorded and retired, we find that there were 5,275 thoroughbred mares in active service in the United Kingdom in 1915. It must be a very long time since so few mares were sent abroad in the course of a year. In 1914 the number was 129, and in 1913 it was 162. The drop to 33, is therefore, very significant.

The following is a list of the stallions serving in 1914 credited last year with twenty or more living foals:

Sire.	Foals.	Sire.	Foals.
Sunstar	43	Earla Mor	23
Simon Square	33	Feather Bed	23

There were thirty-eight stallions credited with from fifteen to nineteen living foals.—Bloodstock Breeders' Review.

DATE OF A MEETING CHANGED.

Lexington, Ky., July 26.—President Price Headley of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Horse Association, today announced that the date for the meeting of the directors with New York, Maryland and Canadian committees at Saratoga, to discuss matters of general interest to turfmen, had been changed from Friday, August 18 to Monday, August 14, to suit the convenience of the horsemen racing in Canada.

ENGLISH YEARLINGS AT PUBLIC SALE.

Son of Polymelus Brings a Price up to the Standard of Peaceful Times.

At the Newmarket First July meeting sales 154 yearlings were sold for an average of nearly $900, which under the depressing influence of present circumstances there is considered excellent. Quite a number of those sold will probably come to this country. G. H. Browne bought sixteen of the cheaper ones, which, it was stated directly were for export to the United States. The British Bloodstock Agency bought freely, and it is conceivable that some of these may also find their way over.

Many well bred ones sold for moderate sums, but there was sharp competition in some cases. The star price of the three day selling was the bay colt Thermogene, by Polymelus—Emotion, which brought 3,000 guineas. The best prics and buyers were:

REMAINING FLAT RACING IN ENGLAND.

That the recent decision of the Stewards of the Jockey Club not to grant any further flat-racing fixtures this year caused disappointment is undeniable. It is also beyond question, however, that the decision has been generally accepted in the same spirit of patriotism as that which animated the members of the Jockey Club when they expressed approval of the Stewards' proposals. What it amounts to now, then, is that we are left the nineteen days' racing, spread over five meetings at Newmarket, and two days each at Gatwick, Windsor, Lingfield and Newbury to complete the present season's sport.

There is, unfortunately, nearly a month's interval to be faced between the Newbury August and Newmarket Third Extra meetings, while that between the latter and the First October is three weeks. These periods will be expensive ones for all concerned in the support of the racing and breeding industries, for which reason one is bound to deplore their necessity. Happily, however, signs are not wanting that a return to something like normal conditions in the life of the nation will not be long delayed, and racing people of all classes will gladly do their best to contribute to that end, if the sacrifice entailed upon them by the Stewards is regarded as really essential.

How long will it be before another Derby and Oaks will be decided over the historic battleground on Epsom Downs? One is prompted to ask the question on account of the announcement that the two great classic events of 1918 close in London, Dublin, Paris, and New York, a fortnight today. They are of the same advertised value as heretofore, and will, let us hope, be decided before crowds whose recollection of the war will be but that of a particularly bad dream. Also, looking happily ahead are the Ascot and Goodwood executives, as on the same day are also to close the Coronation Stakes and St. James' Palace Stakes at the Royal Berkshire meeting of 1918, and the Richmond Stakes and Sussex Stakes at Goodwood in 1917 and 1918 respectively.—London Sporting Life of July 11.

FINISH COMES SATURDAY

DEFINITE CONCLUSION TO BRING THE HAWTHORNE MEETING TO AN END.

Two Horses Fall and Jockey Van Dusen Is Hurt—Many Close Finishes in Yesterday's Racing—Favorites Beaten in All Races.

The matter of extending the Hawthorne meeting was disposed of for good yesterday afternoon when Thomas Carey, owner of the track, announced that with the running of the last race next Saturday the experimental meeting under the auspices of the Illinois Jockey Club, looking towards the permanent revival of Chicago racing, would come to a close.

"While there has been much pressure brought to bear for an extension, and a petition containing the names of all horsemen here, sought a continuance, I deem it advisable for the best interests of the sport," said Mr. Carey, "to bring the racing to a stop with the originally announced period. The racing has proved conclusively that Chicagoans want the sport and, while this meeting has not been successful financially, it has gained its object, the indorsement of the people. We feel that we can go before the legislature and ask for a bill, one patterned on the lines of Kentucky, which will safeguard the sport and enable us to give race meeting of limited periods that will eventually surpass those of other tracks. The decision to close Saturday night has in a measure a bearing on our contemplated plans for a bill."

There is some talk of a fall meeting, but the general belief is that no more racing will be held in this vicinity until next year.

There was some disappointment on the part of several of the horsemen over the decision to close, but the majority of owners, including those with the better grade of racers, approved the verdict. The realize that to close next Saturday will be beneficial and redound to the best interest of future prospects for the sport in these parts. Immediately it became known positively that there would be no racing here next week, owners began plans for departure. Telegrams applying for stall room at Saratoga were sent by many owners and, if space for the horses can be secured, there will be a big list of departures for the noted track next Sunday.

Incidents were plentiful in connection with yesterday afternoon's racing, chief of which was a fall in the fifth race that for a time threatened disastrous results, but luckily terminated in nothing worse than disabling a jockey for saddle service for a time. The unlucky rider was Clyde Van Dusen, who had the mount on the extensively-backed Luzzi. The filly could not be brought clear of Martre, which had fallen directly in the Yeager filly's path, just before rounding the stretch turn and went down in a heap over Martre, which had previously "hit the dust" as a result of tripping when she ran against the heels of M. Bert Thurman. Martre was ridden by J. McCabe and both riders were hastily given first aid. McCabe showed no ill effects from his fall, excepting a sprained hand, but Van Dusen remained unconscious until his return to the jockeys' room. He had many cuts about the face and head and latter was taken to St. Anthony's hospital.

In the opener, the much-raced Originator made his appearance for the last time and his elimination from further racing was due to his breaking a leg while in a forward position when entering the stretch. His injury caused his destruction. Another mishap came in the third race when jockey Feeney was unseated from the green May First, but neither rider nor horse suffered.

The intense heat, coupled with the ordinary card, were factors towards a decreased attendance, but on the whole a fairly good crowd witnessed the sport. The finishes in all the dashes were of the furiously driving kind, with the winner in doubt until the last stride.

The backers of favorites had a bad day, for not a single outstanding choice succeeded during the afternoon. Lady Mildred was the only one that resembled a choice to win. Her victory came in the third race, and she only succeeded in shaking off Esther L., an outsider, in the last strides.

The best race of the afternoon, was the selling handicap at three-quarters, which brought together a good band of short distance racers, Hawthorn, despite his heavy impost, ruling the favorite, but the best he could do was to finish in third place, Kinney, from T. P. Hayes' stable leading for the entire way and having considerable speed in reserve at the finish, while Hocnir beat Hawthorn for second place. This marked Kinney's first winning effort this season, and it appears as if this good colt has at last rounded into form. The disappointment of the race was J. Umensetter's Grover Hughes, which brought up next to last.

The Umensetter colors, however, scored a double during the afternoon, his Deckhand, which has been showing consistent improvement with each start here, won in the second race from Meelogene and the badly ridden Jovial was third. The other member of the Umensetter stable to win was Rapids, which got up in the last stride after a severe drive to win from Amulet.

Busy Alice, which has not been seen under colors in over a year, most of this time being on the sick list, made her three-year-old debut in the opener and, on the strength of her former good form, was made a big favorite, but she ran far below her best form and was never prominent, John Roberts winning by a head from Dash.

Murphy was a good deal responsible for Jovial's failure in the second race and he used extremely bad judgment in his case. After that race Presiding Steward Fitz Gerald restricted Murphy's further riding activities to the Weber & Ward horses for the remainder of this meeting.

Impression was lucky in the fifth race in escaping interference and, under a strong ride, succeeded in wearing Intention down and have enough speed in reserve to outstay Orotund in the final strides. The mixup and fall on the turn had some bearing on the race. M. Bert Thurman suffered when Martre jumped on him.

There is no let up in the vigilance of the sheriff's forces and several more arrests came during the afternoon, when a digression from the fixed oral and credit system of betting occurred.

W. H. Baker was among the track visitors. He will depart for Latonia tomorrow, where his extensive racing string is at present located.

Secretary Walter H. Pearce of the Kentucky tracks also came over to view the sport.

C. F. Buschemeyer, former owner of Hawthorn, was an arrival from Louisville. It is said that he is trying to repurchase Hawthorn.

There will be a number of departures next Monday and Tuesday of turfmen for Louisville and Lexington, who will rest their horses at these points until the resumption of Kentucky racing at Lexington, September 6.

Weights for the Illinois Jockey Club Gold Cup, the last stake race at the Hawthorne meeting, and to be run Saturday, were announced yesterday. Dodge with 126 pounds is the real high-weight. Short Grass, Ed Crump and Slumber II. being in the list. The distance is a mile and a sixteenth and with its $2,000 added money,

PINKERTON HOPEFUL ABOUT RACING HERE.

New York, July 26.—William A. Pinkerton is enthusiastic over the prospects for a thorough revival of racing in Chicago. "There is no question," said he, "that a feeling exists in Chicago favorable to a resumption of racing and it would not surprise me if there was some favorable legislation in Illinois this coming winter. There is hardly a dissenting voice against the meeting now in progress, which is being conducted well within the law excepting for a few almost isolated infractions, where men could not withstand the temptation to pass money when making a wager. But they were quickly arrested and will have to answer to the courts. The speculation is absolutely upon the credit or oral system and will so continue until the law is changed.

"That racing can be conducted at a profit under these conditions was proved ere three days of the meeting had been decided, and I don't think that the reserve subscription fund will have to be touched. That speaks well for the future and I am highly optimistic about racing coming back to Chicago on a better and more solid foundation than it ever was before. I hope so, anyhow, for Chicago certainly wants to patronize the sport, judging from the attendance. Everything has been orderly and no complaints of robbery or welching have been reported. I think I can safely predict that the foundation has been laid for permanent racing in Chicago, either under the existing conditions or by legislative enactment."

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Odom stable will go to Saratoga next Sunday.

King George's horses have won three races this year.

The stables of Emil Herz and E. H. Garrison have been shipped to Saratoga.

Schuyler L. Parsons has been appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club at the Saratoga meeting.

The stewards of the Jockey Club have tabled applications for licenses from jockeys C. Borel and M. Nathan.

Harry Giddings' good Canadian horse, Hearts of Oak, is schooling again in the brilliant fashion he did in the early part of the season.

Trainers T. J. Healey and W. H. Karrick have gone to Saratoga with the stables of R. T. Wilson, H. K. Knapp and Schuyler L. Parsons.

S. C. Hildreth has gone to Saratoga with the racing division of the Belmont stable and Frank M. Taylor has shipped the Willis Sharpe Kilmer horses to the same place.

For alleged inconsistent racing of the mare Ambri, her owner, Joseph Woodward, and her trainer, W. S. Devonshire, were indefinitely suspended at Tijuana July 22.

W. F. Martin, who trains the Kentucky Stable, has sent to the Walter S. Payne farm in Kentucky, the imported Ronkiss, br. c, 3, by Dark Ronald—Sun Kiss, to be educated for a jumper.

William Sheedy has leased from the Brighton Stable two fillies, which he will ship to Saratoga and afterward race on the minor circuits. They are Water Dame, b. f, 2, by Waterboy, and Stony Brook, b. f, 2, by Hessian—Stone Nellie.

The stewards of the Jockey Club have instructed Registrar W. H. Rowe that in the case of a foreign thoroughbred having markings which do not agree with the foreign certificate of registry he shall not issue any certificate of registration without their approval.

The Schorr horses will be shipped to Saratoga Springs Friday. Trainer George Land says that Harry Kelly, the crack juvenile of the Schorr establishment, has bruised the outside quarter of his off hind foot and it may be necessary to lay him up for some time, although the injury does not appear at all serious.

"White Hat" McCarthy, one of the oldest of California horsemen and winner of the American Derby at Chicago with C. H. Todd in 1887, was a visitor at the Empire City course Monday. Mr. McCarthy came on from California to visit his sons, Joe and Harry. The veteran Californian sold the late Senator Hearst the first race horse that great Californian ever owned and is still active.

The horses of G. A. Cochran and M. Daly left Empire City for Saratoga Tuesday night. The stable of W. R. Coe will go to the same place tomorrow. Trainers S. J. Lawler and W. Hurley will send their strings to Saratoga Friday night, while Will Wallace and A. G. Blakeley will ship to the same destination Saturday night. Among those who will ship next Sunday night are D. R. McDaniel, Kimball Patterson, Frank Bray and L. J. Carey. James Fitzsimmons has ordered cars for the shipment of his big stable next Monday, but he will get away earlier if he can obtain the cars.

In his race of Monday, at Empire City, Harry Shaw carried a burr to keep him from running in to the rail. That was because the track near the rail was still heavy from the recent rains, and John Powers, his owner and trainer wanted him to run on the middle of the track, which was fast. There he believed he would race his best and win. The burr worked to perfection so far as it pertained to the course the horse should take, but after the race many horsemen said it prevented him from doing his best; that he was not used to it and that it tended to cause him to quit.

ROMANCES OF FAMOUS RACES.

Some Sensational Turf Events of England in Which Royalty Has Figured.

One of the most interesting features of English classical turf events is their age. Indeed, it is necessary to go back to the beginning of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries for the date of the origin of some of them, and many volumes could still be written concerning their romance and history.

Take the Ascot races, for instance, at which royalty and the elite foregather in July. They were really founded by Queen Anne in 1711, and kings and queens have been more or less intimately associated with them ever since. Even Queen Victoria, who was little given to horse racing, had many recollections of Ascot. She went there first as a young girl in 1834, and on that occasion gave a ten pound note to the winning jockey, little Bell, and when she did so, asked the boy his weight. "Please, ma'am," he answered, "master says as how I must never tell my weight to anybody."

When Persimmon won the Ascot Gold Cup for the Prince of Wales, who afterwards became King Edward, there were scenes of unparalled enthusiasm. These were repeated the year when Minorn won the Derby for the king. But even these did not equal the excitement in 1801 when George Prince of Wales (later George IV.), won the most sensational race ever witnessed on Ascot Common. Five million dollars was said to have been staked, and when Chifney on the prince's Baronet, snatched a victory by half a head, with five other horses running neck and neck to within a few yards of the winning post, the enthusiasm of the 40,000 spectators was boundless. "I made fourteen baronets last week," said George III., to his son when congratulating him, "but your baronet is worth all mine put together."

It was the third Duke of Richmond who started the Goodwood races in 1800—a meeting which has rivaled Ascot in its attraction of royalty and society people. One of the most memorable races for the Goodwood Cup was that of 1830, when King William IV. entered three horses, which came in first, second and third for that event.

Ascot and the St. Leger excepted, the Derby is the oldest classical event on the English turf, the first race having been run in 1780. It was a Captain Burgoyne—who amazed society in 1743 by eloping with Lady Charlotte Stanley, the daughter of the Earl of Derby—who really founded the race. He purchased an estate near Banstead Downs to stimulate the native breeding of horses, and instituted the famous Derby Stakes in 1780.

How many have wanted to win the Derby and have been disappointed. More than one Lord Derby would have given worlds for the honor. It was Lord Glasgow's ambition in a long life, but he only got second once. The dukes of Beaufort and Hamilton took nearly all the other classics, but not the Derby; and so the list of men who have spent fortunes in striving for success in this historical race might be prolonged. One of the most successful Derby winners was probably John Gully, the man who rose from the prize ring to the House of Commons. In 1830 he won $500,000 over his horses, St. Giles and Margrave, when they won the Derby and St. Leger. He invested much of his money in colleries, and by this means is said to have doubled his fortune.

The St. Leger, the second oldest horse racing event in this country, was founded four years before the Derby. It takes its name from the famous Doncaster sportsman, Colonel St. Leger (really pronounced "Sillinger," although it is generally pronounced as spelled by the majority). It is a race which never fails to arouse enthusiasm in the north, and in the days before railways, laborers living fifty miles away would save up their shillings weeks before, walk to Doncaster, see the race, and walk home again. Many memorable St. Legers have taken place, including two dead heats, while on one occasion a horse named Theodore, against which the odds had been quoted at 1,000 to a walking stick—or, officially 1,000 to 5—won.

One hundred years ago the race for the Two Thousand Guineas, which the late King Edward won some years ago, was instituted, the year after the founding of the Chester Cup. The title of the former race originated from the fact that it was stablished as a sweepstakes of 100 guineas each, and the subscribers numbered twenty, while the One Thousand Guineas had the same conditions with the ten subscribers and was therefore called the One Thousand Guineas. One of the greatest races in connection with the Two Thousand was when Donovan was considered such a certainty that odds of 85 to 20 were laid on him in a field of nine. Tom Canon, however, was riding a bad-tempered horse named Enthusiast, which would only go when he liked. And he did like on that day, and Cannon pulled off the race by a head.

Both the Cesarewitch and the Grand National were founded seventy years ago, in which year also the Cambridgeshire was established. The Grand National was first run by a syndicate of sportsmen who had acquired the lease of the grandstand and race course at Aintree, where from time immemorial the Liverpool races had been held. This syndicate decided on a steeplechase on a grander scale than had hitherto been attempted; hence the name, Grand National.

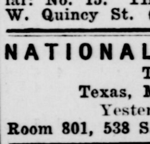

This race has been notable for the number of gentlemen riders who have succeeded in bringing their mounts first past the post, and there are still old sportsmen in the north, who remember the race of 1848, when John Brown, the well-known prize fighter, bet Captain Alleyne that he would be in the fourth field from home when the winner passed the post. But when Becher's Brook was reached the second time his horse, which was palpably unfit, came to dire grief, and gave the venturesome pugilist such a toss as lost him his senses for the time being, as well as his wager.

The Eclipse Stakes is a race of more modern origin, having been established in 1886. When the Sandown Park race committee announced that they intended to give a fortune at once in the shape of $50,000, thus eclipsing all previous prizes, no small sensation was created in the racing world. The distinction of riding the winner of the first ten thousand pounder belongs to Tom Cannon, who brought Bendigo home in a canter. The race for the Eclipse Stakes of 1892 was memorable on account of the fact that the late Duke of Westminster entered his horse Orme, which was a pronounced favorite for the Derby that year, but was reported to have been got at, so did not run. He ultimately won the Eclipse Stakes by a neck.
